

I am a regular listener of K-LOVE radio in our area. I understand that the FCC is proposing to expand LPFM and that if that happens, the LPFM stations could take priority over current FM translator service.

I would be very disappointed to lose K-LOVE as my family and I listen regularly. My sons, 3 & 4 yrs. old love the music. When I put the radio on another station and there is talking, they ask me to put the music back on. We enjoy K-LOVE so much that we support it financially.

I have friends that I have recommended K-LOVE to. Sometimes all the talking and preaching on the other stations, gets old and it is nice to have a station to recommend.

I know that K-LOVE reaches not just Christians or churchgoers. There are many times when people are channel surfing and come across K-LOVE just at a time in their lives when they really need it. Many people have been helped by the prayer ministry of K-LOVE and other help that is available through them.

I want K-LOVE to be able to continue broadcasting for a very long time.

Sincerely, Robin Field
